

Scottish Centre
for Telehealth

LAUNCH CONFERENCE:
SCOTTISH CENTRE
FOR TELEHEALTH

Dunblane Hydro Hotel, Dunblane
25/26th October 2006

It gives me great pleasure to give you advance notice of this significant event, which will:

- 1 Launch the new Scottish Centre for Telehealth
- 2 Feature recognised international speakers, who will share their experience of successful approaches to implementing telehealth
- 3 Showcase existing telehealth projects across Scotland
- 4 Explore the potential of new telehealth solutions to support the redesign of health services in Scotland
- 5 Bring together health policy makers, researchers, clinicians, professional organisations, other public sector bodies and suppliers to develop new models of collaboration

WE WILL BE LOOKING AT:

- Long-term conditions
- Professional education
- Unscheduled care
- Access to health services (including remote and rural)

As well as plenary sessions, there will be inter-active workshops and an opportunity for delegates to develop and discuss their plans for telehealth in Scotland. An exhibition will display telehealth solutions from leading suppliers to NHS Scotland and internationally.

SPEAKERS WILL INCLUDE:

Keynote Address

DR KEVIN WOODS

Chief Executive, NHS Scotland

'Delivering for Health'

PROFESSOR DAVID KERR

The University of Oxford

DAVID KELLY

Director of Primary Care, NHS Lothian

NEILS ROSSING and HENNING VOSS

Danish Centre for Telematics

JOHN MCGUIGAN

Chief Executive, NHS 24

PROFESSOR YUNKAP KWANKAM

eHealth Co-ordinator

World Health Organisation

To reserve your place at the conference please contact:

sct@conventionmanagement.co.uk

Tel: +44 131 623 2529

For more information about sponsorship and exhibition opportunities please contact Sandra Auld:

Sandraauld@btinternet.com

Tel: 07789 712661

PROFESSOR GORDON PETERKIN

Director, Scottish Centre for Telehealth